My topic is “The Fall of Islam”.

In March 19, 2012 in Toulouse, France a 23 year old French Algerian by the name of Mohamed Merah he pulled up in his motor scooter in the Jewish Ozar Hatorah Junior, Senior High School. He dismounted and began immediately to open fire into the school yard. His barrage fell the 30 year old Rabi and teacher just outside the school gates as he tried to shield his two young sons, age 6 and 3 from the gunman. Merah shot one of the boys as he crawled away from his father and brother lying dying on the pavement. And then Merah walked in the school yard chasing people into the building, and once inside he shot at staff, he shot at parents, and he shot at students. The killer then chased that little blond girl, that little 8 year old girl into the court yard, he grabbed her by her hair, he put the gun to her head and he pulled the trigger. It jammed, nothing happened, he threw the gun down, he picked up one of the many guns he was carrying and finished the job. He then hopped on his moped and he drove off. Four people died in that shooting, it became the worse school related attack in French history, and it became the biggest manhunt in French history. Merah while he was doing all of this killing filmed it with a camera he had strapped to his body. When he got home he made a video of the killings, set it to music and verses in the Koran and he uploaded it to Al Jazeera. Later there was a long standoff with the police he had a huge private arsenal and he wanted to go out as a martyr. He jumped out the window yelling, “Allah Akbar,” and shooting up at the police. The French authorities finally had to shoot him down. And when they researched it they found that he had traveled to Afghanistan, he traveled to Pakistan, and he had been trained by al-Qaida. And in the message that he left behind he justified his murders by saying, “These acts are not only necessary but they were to uphold the honor of Islam.”

Exhibit number 2, on November 5, 2009, US Army Major and Psychiatrist Nidal Malik Hasan entered his base in Fort Hood, Texas he took a seat at an empty table, he bowed his head for several seconds in prayer, then he stood up and shouted, “Allah Akbar- Allah is great.” And he fired into the unarmed crowd of his own fellow soldiers. Within 10 minutes he had killed 13 people and wounded 29 others. A total of 214 rounds had been fired and you know he was still carrying another 177 rounds until a civilian police officer shot him and paralyzed him. Now Hasan was a Palestinian Muslim, he attended Falls Church Virginia Mosque where 2 of the 911 hijackers had gone. He had ties to Yemen base cleric Anwar al-Awlaki who after shooting al-Awlaki posted on the internet that Hasan was a hero for fighting against the US Army is an Islamic duty. As you know Major Hasan has been in the news this week and he has been convicted of all accounts.

September 11, 2001, exhibit 3, 19 al-Qaida hijacked 4 passenger jets, slamming 2 into the World Tower, 1 into the Pentagon, and 1 crashed in a field in Pennsylvania. 3,000 people died in the attack, including 227 civilians, and all 19 hijackers committed suicide on those 4 planes. The mastermind behind 9/11 you know is Osama bin Laden said this about it, "To kill American and their allies, civilians and military is an individual duty for every Muslim who can do it in any country in which it is possible." And so I ask you why? What is it about Islam that hates us so much? Why are they trying to kill us? What turns normal people into raving murderers who say it is their duty to do it? And that friends is what we are going to cover right now. We need to get in to the head of the Muslim. They are not just crazy people, there is a reason behind this thinking. There is a reason behind these killings. And there is a reason behind these deaths. Why indeed?

Ok, let's go into their belief. Remember each time they claim that Islam was what drove them to do these killings. So we have to understand Islam just a little bit. Now Islam, when I say that word, it means submission, that is what the world Islam means. And to be a Muslim means one who submits. And we will get into who they submit to in a moment. Now folks will say that Islam is just a religion, it is just a religion. But it is not. A Muslim is taught that Islam is beyond religion, it is civil, it is cultural, it is military, and it encompasses every aspect of your life. Islam is not just a religion, it is a life style of its founding century the 7th Century, 600 AD. So to be a Muslim means that you look toward the 600 AD's as your focal point for life, the ultimate in how it should be. It was founded by this man Mohammad he was born in 570 AD to the powerful Arab Quraysh tribe that ruled Mecca in Arabia. He was raised by a grandfather and later an uncle after his parents died. He was a shepherd and he did camel care jobs, kind of our equivalent of flipping burgers, he was a burger flipper of his time, he took care of camels. But at 25 he met a 40 year old widow, she was very wealthy and he married her and his job problems were over. And with Khadji he had six children. After Khadji died he ended up marrying a total of 15 women, 1 per year and he would take them from the spoils of war, he would take first cousins, and he even took his own daughter-in-law Zaynab away from his son. And at 54 years old he took a little six years old girl by the name of Aisha to be his wife which he consummated the marriage at 9 years old.

His nurse Haleemah claimed that Mohammad had fits from gins, which is where we get the term genie, spirits, evil spirits and that he was tormented constantly by demons. At age 40 his torments were so intense, so crazy that he went into a cave to commit suicide. But before he was about to kill himself supposedly the angel Gabriel came down and gave him a message. And this is the message that Gabriel gave him. Gabriel said, "Mecca is too idolatress." They worship 360 different idols once for each lunar day. And they worship all of these around a meteor called the Kaaba. "Now Mohammad your God Allah, the moon God which is represented by the crescent moon symbol he is to be the only God worshipped in Mecca." So what did Mohammad do? He listened to it, he went to Mecca and said, "I'm sorry you can't worship these gods anymore, only my god Allah." Well how do you think the people took it? The drove him out, they didn't like it very much. He ran to the local town called Medina and that is actually the beginning of the Islamic calendar when he ran. It is called the Hijri and he became a prophet in Medina. He kept sharing this message and he made a living by pillaging the caravans that came by. Eventually he got 10,000 men to join him, he went back to Mecca and he went there to conquer it. He promised the men a plunder and a fifth of the money was his and he would pardon the people of their sins and the people were promised that if they took Mecca they would go to heaven and get many virgins with very large eyes. Once he got there this is the impetuous, this is the reasoning behind how he fought. The penalty for those who wage war against Allah and his messenger and strive upon to earth, corruption is none but those to be killed or crucified or their hands or feet be cut off from the opposite sides. Or they be exiled from the land that is for them a disgrace in this world and for them and the hereafter is a great punishment. So when Mohammad went into Mecca he said that, "You join me or I chop your hands off or I kill you." What did the people do? They joined him. And that has been the driving force behind all evangelism in Islam to this day.

Well two years later after a terrible battle the daughter, or the daughter-in-law that became his wife she was tired of all of her family members dying in his battle so they poisoned Mohammad. He spit the food out in time but he took enough in, along with pneumonia it finally killed him in 632 AD in Median Mohammad was buried. And you know what folks? Mohammad is still there today.

Let's talk about the Koran, their holy book, ours is the Bible, theirs is the Koran. It is called the recitation. Now Mohammad was illiterate he couldn't write, so what he did is he'd get these possessions and he would start doing automatic writing on bones, and strips of linen anything he could find and different men would surround him who could write and record what they said. And over the years they put all this together into what is called the Koran, it is about as long as the New Testament. And basically there were many versions of it before it was finally compiled. And Mohammad would also take teachings from Moses and Jesus, and Zoroaster which is a Persian religion and he put it together and formed the Koran over the years. But it is filled with historical errors. For instance it said that Jesus was born of Mary the sister of Moses. Bible drill time, is that correct? Jesus didn't die on the cross, He's not the Son of God. Judas Iscariot replaced Jesus. How about this one, this is a good Bible drill one. Samaritans tricked the Israelites at the Exodus, true or false? You are all looking at me like you don't know. When did the Samaritans show up? Hundreds of years after the Exodus, so that is wrong. He also said that Alexander the Great was a Muslim, even though Alexander the Great was 900 years before Mohammad was on the scene. He also had some very interesting teachings in the Koran, and ladies I am sorry if this offends you but Mohammad wouldn't care, he doesn't mind offending you. Women are deficient in mind. A majority of the people in Hell are women. Women are a bad omen. I guess when you have 15 wives gentlemen, it is a bad thing.

He has some medical advice, if you drink camel urine you will be healthy. If you have a fly in your drink it will cure you. He said that fevers come from the heat of Hell itself and if you wanted to send a person to Hell all you had to do was talk badly about them. Gossiping worked. There is also a second book called the Hadith it is the report, it is 7,000 traditional sayings that Mohammad said. And it was compiled about 200 years after Mohammad died. And it helps people act just like Mohammad, so if they want to know what Mohammad believed or thought they can go to the Hadith. So we have what would Jesus do? They had what would Mohammad do, exactly? And you can do to the Hadith and know what Mohammad had done. So if Mohammad said you need some money, go raid a caravan, you can go raid a caravan. If you need to lie to advance your cause well that is ok, Mohammad says that too. If you need to take as many wives as you want, well Mohammad said you could only have 4 wives, he gets 15, so gentlemen you are capped at 4, and that is some of the teachings in the Hadith.

Now all this is based around Allah the moon god that they worship. Now folks this is so important to understand because we have so many people in the media today telling us that Islam and Christianity worship the same God, well you tell me if this is the same god? Allah is a unitarian-monotheism, a matter of fact he is only one god, not a trinity, not a father-son-and Holy Spirit. And to even say that god is a trinity is shirk, it is idolatry. He is distant and unknowable. He is unpredictable concerning salvation, there is no assurance of salvation. He reveals his will, but not his self. The relationship is master and slave, not father and son. He determines all there is no free will in Islam. He created both good and evil. He is feared by his followers, and he has no love for his people. I will go as far to say and I will stand on it, that who in the Bible does that type of description explain? It is Satan. So when anyone tells you that Mohammad is saying that the God of the Bible and God of Islam is the same, is that true? Not at all, they are totally different.

How about their belief system, they have five doctrines in Islam, God or Allah, which we talked about. There is angels in the Bible, matter of fact there is hierarchy of angels and each person is assigned an angel. You know you always see in the cartoons there is a good angel on one side, and a bad angel on the other, that is from Islam. One is recording all the good stuff you do, and the other is recording all the bad stuff you do. They have the holy books of course we talked about two of them but they also consider the Torah of Moses, the Psalms of David, the Gospel of Jesus and the Koran as all holy books, but of course the Koran supersedes them. They have prophets, they have over 100,000 prophets and they even include Adam, Noah, and Jesus in that list but they consider Mohammad the greatest of them all. And they also believe in a future judgment in which we will cover that a little later.

There are Five Pillars of Islam, to be a Muslim you must do these five things, the first is called the Creed of the Shahadah to bear witness, and this is what a Muslim says when a person says when they accept Islam, "There is no god but Allah, and Mohammad is his prophet." So last night we were blessed to see five people give their lives and their hearts to the Lord. If it was Islam they would have gone up and said the Shahadah. They also have prayers called the Salat, five times a day, dawn, noon, afternoon, evening and night they pray kneel face down towards Mecca. They have alms giving which is called Zakat, 1/20th of the income from a Muslim goes to benefit orphans and widows and build Mosques. They also have a fast called the Sawn, and during Ramadan which is the ninth month of their lunar year that is where they abstain from all food and other things during the daylight hours, but when night time comes they can do what they want. And of course the fifth is called the pilgrimage or the Hajj to Mecca, every Muslim must go to Mecca and walk around the meteor there the Kaaba Stone that they worship. And they walk around that and if they are infirmed they can send a representative in their place. Muslim people must go to Mecca. And I would argue that it is an unspoken pillar but the sixth pillar which is jihad which is the struggle to survive, the will of Allah, the arm struggle for Islam against what they call the infidels and apostates, unbelievers.

Now how does a Muslim view Christianity? (1) They say that the Bible was corrupted by the Jews and Christians so they are fine with the Bible in fact Mohammad endorsed it in Surah 550, said you could read the Bible but it is corrupted. And when you talk to Muslims they will always say, "Well you are quoting the Bible but that is corrupted." But doesn't the Bible say that it is the inspired Word of God. Doesn't history show us there are 5300 copies of New Testament manuscripts, archaeological evidence 86,000 reference by early Church fathers? The Dead Sea Scrolls say that the Bible we have today is not corrupted whatsoever. It says of course that God is one, that there is no Trinity, and yet the Bible says that God is three in one, co-equal. He said that humanity and everything was created by a blood clot, but doesn't the Bible say that the dust and breath of God we are made in His image? Man is taught that they are born good. So Islam denies that there is a sin nature whatsoever. Yet Romans 3:23 tells us that we are born in sin. They also believe that salvation through submission and works. It is a works based salvation. There is no faith, and there is no grace in Islam. And of course they believe in Jesus, they call Him Isa al'Masih, they say that He is sinless even though Mohammad had to confess his sins, so there is a little argument there. So that is the view of when you talk to a Muslim and you say you are a Christian that is the lens that they see you in, the colored glasses.

Let's look at Islam's goals, what are they trying to accomplish and there are three things, and I think I can sum it up best by which Sheik Ibrahim Mudeiris said on May 13, 2005, "We have ruled the world before and by Allah the day will come when we will rule the entire world again. The day will come when we will rule America. The day will come when we rule Britain and the entire world except for the Jews. The Jews will not enjoy a life of tranquility under our rule. The day will come when everything will be relieved of the Jews. Listen to the prophet Mohammad, who tells you about the evil end that awaits the Jews: 'The stones and trees will want the Muslims to finish off every Jew.'" This is coming out of the Mosques around the world and here in America, that's the message that is being taught.

So (1) World domination- Islam believes that Islam is the only true religion. Good for them we believe we are the only true religion too. But they believe they are the only true religion so militaristically they must defeat the world for Islam. So folks does that mean that Islam can be co-existed with? Does that mean Islam can be appeased? No. The basic teaching that Mohammad taught his people is that Islam must dominate the world for Allah as Gabriel told him. And to do that all infidels all unbelievers must be dead and or put into submission.

(2) Shar'ia Law it means the pathway to be followed or in real translation the path to the water hole, it is infallible word of God for Muslims. Shar'ia Law is basically a 7th Century teaching it is how people lived in Arabia in the 7th Century. And it supersedes all laws of a nation. So when a Muslim comes into a nation and we have this law that says don't beat your wife, like that's not a problem the Koran says I can beat my wife, so I can. So every law that is taught in the Koran supersedes the laws. And that is why when Muslims come into nations they don't integrate into their societies because their laws teach them that they must remain separate. It is a very difficult religion for women, women are very confined and it has very strict penalties as you see from the pictures here. If you commit adultery you are stoned to death like that woman. The little boy there that is a real picture of course he stole something so his father there had a car run over his arm and break it. If you fornicate you are stoned to death. You can beat your wife. If you commit apostasy you must be killed. In other words if you convert from Islam a Muslim has every legal right to kill you. Why do not many people leave Islam? It is a death sentence if they do.

(3) Islam believes that every Jew must be killed, Israel and Jerusalem must be retaken. And there are three reasons why they hate the Jews so much and they want Israel back. (1) Land for Allah a portion of the Koran states that once the land has been conquered for Allah it must remain an Islamic land. When the Arabs had conquered the lands after the crusaders in the Middle Ages they drove them out. And now that Israel has that land again it is an offense to Allah that the Jews hold that land, it must be retaken back. Does that mean any peace process in the Middle East is going to work with Israel? No, if Israel gives more land away will that bring peace? No. It is not in the Islamic playbook, they must take every scrap of land that Israel owns. (2) They do this because it is a works based salvation, they must redeem themselves for losing the land to Allah and that is what the Muslim clerics teach. And (3) they have superiority other religions. To take Israel is to take the foundation of three major religions as they believe. And so to take Israel, to keep the Dome of the Rock up on the Temple Mount is to declare to the entire world that they are the dominant religion. That is why the Dome of the Rock is up there. It is a message, it's a flag that says, "We control the world. We have the best religion."

Now let's talk about the spread of Islam, and folks let me tell you this thing has spread like wildfire. There are three main divisions you have the Sunni's- 80% are Sunni it means the trodden path, or tradition. They want to live a life in the pattern of Mohammad. They want to elect leaders. They follow the Islamic Code very well. Then there are the Shi'ites they are a smaller group, they broke off because they felt that a descendent of Mohammad must be there leader, so instead of an Imam like the Sunnis the Shi'ites believe that authority goes through Mohammad. And then the Sufi's which are the mystics, they believe God must be experienced. So you have the Sunni's which are like your conservatives. You've got your Shi'ites which are your ultra-orthodox conservatives. And then your Sufi's who are like your hippie-liberals if that helps you understand the groups. Now, look at that, oh my goodness the followers of Islam conquered and it is easy to conquer when you walk into a town with an army and say, "We will kill you unless you convert." And matter of fact they spread so fast that they were on the doorsteps of France in 732 AD in Vienna in 1529. Islam is constantly been trying to take Europe. Now I have a video that kind of shows how they are taking Europe today, and I think it will be really eye-opening to see what is going on in European Countries today.

According to research in order for a culture to maintain itself for more than 25 years there must be a fertility rate of 2.11 children per family. With anything less a culture will decline. Historically no culture has ever reversed a 1.9 fertility rate. A rate of 1.3 is impossible to reverse because it would take 80 to 100 years to correct itself. And there is no economic model that can sustain a culture during that time. In other words, if two sets of parents each have one child there are half as many children as parents. If those children have one child then there are a quarter as many grandchildren as grandparents. If only a million babies are born in 2006 it is hard to have 2 million adults enter the work force in 2026.

As the population shrinks so does the culture. As of 2007 the fertility rate in France was 1.8, England 1.6, Greece 1.3, Germany 1.3, Italy 1.2, Spain 1.1. Across the entire European Union of 31 countries the fertility is a mere 1.38. Historical research tells us these numbers are impossible to reverse. In a matter of years Europe as we know it will cease to exist.

Yet the population of Europe is not declining. Why? Immigration- Islamic immigration. Of all population growth in Europe since 1990, 90% has been Islamic immigration. France 1.8 children per family; Muslims 8.1. In southern France, traditionally one of the most populated church regions in the world, there are now more mosques than churches. 30% of children ages 20 and younger are Islamic. In the larger cities such as Nice, Marseille, and Paris that numbers has grown to 45%. By 2027, 1 in 5 Frenchmen will be Muslim. In just 39 years France will be an Islamic Republic.

In the last 30 years the Muslim population of Great Britain rose from 82,000 to 2.5 million, a 30 fold increase. There are over 1,000 mosques many of them former churches.

In the Netherlands 50% of all newborns are Muslim. And in only 15 years half of the population of the Netherlands will be Muslim.

In Russia there are over 23 million Muslims, that's 1 out of 5 Russians. 40% of the entire Russian army will be Islamic in just a few short years.

Currently in Belgium 25% of the population and 50% of all newborns are Muslim. The government of Belgium has stated that one-third of all European children will be born to Muslim families by 2025, just 17 years away.

The German government, the first to talk about this publically, recently released a statement saying, "The fall in the German population can no longer be stopped. Its downward spiral is no longer reversible. It will be a Muslim state by the year 2050."

Muammar al-Qaddafi of Libya said, "There are signs that Allah will grant victory to Islam in Europe without swords, without guns, without conquest. We don't need terrorists, we don't need homicide bombers. The 50 plus million Muslims in Europe will turn it into a Muslim continent within a few decades."

There are currently 52 million Muslims in Europe. The German government said that number is expected to double in the next 20 years to 104 million.

Closer to home the numbers tells a similar story. Right now Canada's fertility rate is 1.6, nearly a full point below what it is required to sustain a culture. And Islam is now the fastest growing religion [there]. Between 2001 and 2006 Canada's population increased by 1.6 million, 1.2 of those immigration.

In the United States, the current fertility rate of American citizens is 1.6. With the influx of the Latino nations the rate increases to 2.11, the bare minimum required to sustain a culture. In 1970, there were 100,000 Muslims in America. Today, there are over 9 million.

The world is changing. It's time to wake up.

Three years ago a meeting of 24 Islamic organizations was held in Chicago. The transcripts of that meeting showed in detail their plans to evangelize America through journalism, politics, education and more. They said, "We must prepare ourselves for the reality that in 30 years there will be 50 million Muslims living in America."

The world that we live in is not the world in which our children and grandchildren will live in.

The Catholic Church recently reported that Islam has just surpassed their membership numbers. Some studies show that at Islam's current rate of growth in 5-7 years it will be the dominant religion of the world.

As believers we call upon you to join the effort to share the Gospel message with the changing world. This is a call to action.

This video was so effective that the Catholic Church held a special meeting to just to watch it and decide if they were losing the battle in Europe or not. It's gotten millions of views you can check it out on YouTube.

Now how does Islam fight? What are their tactics? What do they do? Well (1) we talked about a little bit jihad. There are 100 verses in the Koran that talk about jihad. Now some people say, "Well you know the earlier verses they are more peaceful and those are the ones we follow." But Islam teaches that later verses abrogate or replace earlier versions. So in the beginning Muhammad was trying to get Christians and Jews to join his side, they wouldn't so then he had virulent hatred of Christians and Jews so the later verses that talk about killing Jews and Christians are the ones that Islam is supposed to follow and taught. Now you can look at Surah 9:5 for instance, "Fight and slay the pagans wherever you find them and seize them and beleaguer them and lie and wait for them in every stratagem." Or Surah 2 "And kill them wherever you find them, and drive them out from whence they drove you out, and persecution is severer than slaughter... if they do fight you, then slay them; such is the recompense of the unbelievers." Or Surah 9:29, "Fight those who believe not in Allah nor the Last Day, nor hold that forbidden which hath been forbidden by Allah and His prophet, nor acknowledge the religion of Truth, (even if they are) of the People of the Book (the Christians), until they pay the Jizya (the tax) with willing submission, and find themselves subdued."

The Hadith also talks about the killing of the Jews, The last hour would not come unless the Muslims will fight against the Jews and the Muslims would kill them until the Jews would hide themselves behind a stone or a tree and a stone or a tree would say: 'Muslim, or the servant of Allah, there is a Jew behind me; come and kill him!...' What fuels that? The promise of Paradise. The only assurance a Muslim is given that they will make it into Paradise. "When you meet unbelievers smite their necks, and then when you have made wide slaughter among them tie fast... And those who are slain in the way of god, he will not send their works astray, he will guide them and dispose their minds alright and he will admit them to paradise that he has made known to them." They are also taught never make a covenant or an agreement, or a treaty with an infidel. Surah 4:89 "They wish you would disbelieve as they disbelieved so you would be alike. So do not take from among them allies until they emigrate for the cause of Allah. But if they turn away, then seize them and kill them wherever you find them and take not from among them any ally or helper." These folks are the marching orders of Islam.

(2) As we saw in that video if you can't defeat them militarily you defeat them by population. What great historical example do we have of that? The fall of Rome, they couldn't defeat Rome's army so what did the Visigoths and the Vandals do up North? They just moved into Rome, pretty soon they were the predominate people. And Rome fell. And with Islam it is the same way.

Brother Al says I have some extra time so I am going to show this video. I don't usually show this video but I think this video is great to show you once Islam gets a foot in the door how do they eventually end up taking over the country and what does that country look like once it is taken over?

If you live in the West and are concerned with Islam and the assimilation of your country, this video has a message for you.

What Islam is not was published in the frontpagemagazine.com on April 21, 2008 and is an adaptation from a book written by Dr. Peter Hamon, "Slavery, Terrorism, and Islam."

"What Islam is Not." Islam is not a religion, nor is it a cult. In its fullest form it is a complete, total, 100% system of life. Islam has religious, legal, political, economic, social, and military components. The religious component is foundational for all of the other components.

Islamization begins when there are sufficient Muslims in a country to advocate for their religious rights. When politically correct tolerance and culturally diverse societies agree to Muslim demands for their religious rights, some of the other components tend to creep in as well. Here's how it works:

As long the Muslim population remains around or under 2% in any given country there will be for the most part regarded a peace-loving minority, and not seen as a threat to other citizens. This is the case in the United States, Australia, Canada, China, Italy, and Norway.

At 2-5%, they begin to convert some other ethnic minorities and disaffected groups often with major recruiting from the jails and among street gangs. This is happening in Denmark, Germany, United Kingdom, Spain and Thailand.

From 5% on, they exercise an excessive influence in proportion to their percentage of the population. For example, they will push for the introduction of Halal food, which is clean food by some standards, thereby securing food preparation jobs for Muslims. They will increase pressure on supermarket chains to feature halal on their shelves, along with threats for failure to comply. This is incurring in France, Philippines, Sweden, Switzerland, the Netherlands, Trinidad, and Tobago. At this point they will work to get the ruling government to allow them to rule themselves within their ghettos under Sharia, the Islamic law. The ultimate goal of the Islamics is to establish Sharia Law over the entire world.

When Muslims approach 10% of the population, they tend to increase lawlessness as a means of complaint about the condition. In Paris we are already seeing car burnings. Any non-Muslim action offends them and results in uprisings and threats, such as in Amsterdam and in other Western cities, with opposition to Mohammad cartoons and films exposing Islam. Such tensions are seen daily, particularly in Muslim sections in Guyana, India, Israel, Kenya, and Russia.

After reaching 20%, nations can expect hair-trigger rioting, jihad militia formations, sporadic killings, and the burnings of Christian churches and Jewish synagogues such as in Ethiopia.

At 40%, nations experience wide-spread massacres, Islamic terrorist attacks, and ongoing militia warfare, such as in Bosnia, Chad, and Lebanon.

At 60%, nations experience unfettered persecution of non-believers of all other religions including non-conforming Muslims. Sporadic ethnic cleansing, using Sharia Law as a weapon, jizya, and attacks placed on infidels; such as in Albania, Malaysia, Qatar and Sudan.

After 80%, expect daily intimidation and violent jihad, some state run ethnic cleansings, and even genocide as these nations drive out the infidels and move towards 100% Muslims. Such is ongoing in Bangladesh, Egypt, Gaza, Indonesia, Iran, Iraq, Jordan, Morocco, Pakistan, Palestine, Syria, Tajikistan, Turkey, and United Arab Emirate.

100% will enter in peace of Dar al Salam, the Islamic house of peace. Here there is supposed to be peace because everybody is a Muslim. The madrasahs are the only schools and the Koran is the only word. Such as in Afghanistan, Saudi Arabia, Somalia and Yemen. Unfortunately, peace is never achieved as in these 100% states the most radical Muslims intimidate and spew hatred and satisfy their blood lust by killing less radical Muslims for a variety of reasons.

A quote from the book the Leon Uris, The Haj: "Before I was 9 I had learned the basic cannon of Arab life. It was me against my brother; me and my brother against our father; my family against my cousins and the clan; the clan against the tribes; the tribe against the world; and all of us against the infidel."

It is important to understand that in some countries with well under 100% Muslim populations such as France, the minority Muslim population live in ghettos within which they are 100% Muslims and in which they live by Sharia law. The national police do not even enter these ghettos. There are no national courses or school or non-Muslim religious facilities. In such situations Muslims do not integrate into the community at large. The children attend madrasahs where they learn only the Koran. To even associate with an infidel is a crime punishable by death. Therefore, in some areas of certain nations, Muslim imams and extremists exercise more power than the national average would indicate.

Today's 1.5 billion Muslims make up 22% of the world's population, but their birth rate dwarf the birth rate of Christians, Hindus, Buddhists, and Jews and all other believers.

Muslims will exceed 50% of the world's population by the end of this century.

These are the ways that Islam takes over the world, jihad, and immigration. We are seeing today in our own country an increasing violence, bombers on our land. People that are Americans converting to Islam and trained off shores. We are moving up the percentages and there is no stopping it.

Now Islam has a particular end time view and I want to give of course credit to Dr. Reagan who researched it all and put it together and this is what Muslims believe about the end times. They believe a savior called the Mahdi is going to be coming during this time called the hour. And there will be signs that follow it, kind of interesting signs: women will outnumber men 50:1, men will eat with their tongues like cows, time will contract, wild beasts will speak, and the Euphrates River will uncover a mountain of gold. So when that happens the Mahdi will come. Now bear in mind there are elements in Islam that were taken from other religions so we are going to hear some periodic things that are familiar to you from the Bible. But don't forget Islam is a made up religion, Satan doesn't know how the end times are going to turn out except from the Bible. So as you go through here don't be concerned that all this is going to happen.

They all have an antichrist- the Dajjal and of course he is a Jew, he is going to be born in Iran. He has one eye, has the word infidel tattooed on his forehead and he will lead a Jewish army. And this folks is when the Mahdi shows up, the 12th Imam, he's a kid that supposedly centuries ago fell down a well and he comes back, he is a direct descendent of Mohammad and he will lead them along with Jesus. And they believe that Jesus will return to the Mount of Olives, which they got from the Bible, he will defeat the Dajjal near Tel Aviv. He defeats the Gog and Magog invaders. He converts the world to Islam, Jesus does, and he breaks all the crosses. Jesus kills all the pigs and he marries, has children, and then he dies. Now the world during this time will have many natural disasters, beasts will appear. Smoke will engulf the world, there will be landslides. The sun will begin rising from the west. And fire will round up all the people in Syria. There are resurrections, there are three, there is the trumpet of terror, there is a trumpet of swoon, and there is a trumpet of the resurrection they call it.

And that brings people to the day of reckoning. Now for a Muslim the day of reckoning is a purgatory, in other words no matter what if you are a Muslim you know you are going to purgatory, you must suffer there except unless you are the most devout who teach it. Allah judges you then based on the works that the two angels recorded on scales. And if you are found worthy you cross the bridge and those who are unfaithful will fall off the bridge into Hell. But there are still some chances to be saved after that and be rescued from Hell.

They also have a view of Paradise, Surah 4:56-57, those who are slain are promised 72 voluptuous virgins. "But those who believe and do righteous deeds we will admit to them gardens beneath which rivers flow, where they abide forever. For them therein are purified spouses, and we will admit them to deepening shade." So there are seven parts to their Paradise, it's not a Heaven of spiritual delight and communion with God, Allah is off in the distance you don't get to talk to him. It is all physical, it is all sensual and it is all sexual. And you've got to wonder why woman would be interested in being a continual boy toy throughout the entire time? But that is what they do.

Now those who go to Hell, Surah 4:56-57 says, "Indeed, those who disbelieve in our verses (the infidels) we will drive them into a Fire. And every time their skins are roasted through we will replace them with other skins so they may taste the punishment. Indeed, Allah is ever exalted in Might and Wise." Now Hell for them also has seven levels. Did you know there is a level of Hell reserved for the Christian, we've got our own place? There is a level of Hell reserved for the Jews. And you know there is a level of Hell primarily reserved for ladies, not many women are going to make it unless you are one of the virgins. Although 72:1 ratio, not sure how that works. Unfortunately Hell is for women.

By all indications, by all statistics, Islam will take over the world. This church will eventually become a mosque. Your children will eventually become Muslims or die. That is the direction the world is going right now.

Or is it? I want to argue no. Praise the Lord. No, my children will not be forced into Islam that I know of for a few reasons: Islam has an end according to the Bible. Now one of the things about Islam growing more and more powerful in the world, no matter how much Satan uses for evil God turns to good. And one of the side effects of Islam becoming more powerful it is regathering the Jews back into the nation of Israel. This is a fulfillment that God promised that the Jews would one day go back to their own land, Isaiah 11:12, and Micah 2:12. Ezekiel 28:25 God says, "I will show myself holy among them in the sight of the nation." God is using Islam to force the Jews back into their homeland.

Now all the world is focused on Israel right now. Geert Wilders, Dutch Lawmaker said, "If there would have been no Israel, Islamic imperialism would have found other places to release its energy and its desire for conquest. Therefore, the war against Israel is not a war against Israel. It is a war against the West. It is jihad... Thanks to Israeli parents who see their children go off to join the army and lie awake at night, parents in Europe and America can sleep well and have pleasant dreams, unaware of the dangers looming." How dangerous is it for the current administration to gut Israel of its defensive capability? What will be the end result according to Geert Wilders? The war will move out of there and move here. Israel folks is keeping that at bay.

Now look at the Muslim nations, I put them in red, yellow is Russia, Russia is quickly becoming an Islamic nation, it plays a big part in Bible Prophecy. I want to tell you there are three prophetic wars that the Bible gives that I believe will gut Islam as a religion in the end times. And the first one is this the Psalm 83 War. It is a war in which Israel will have to deal with its neighbors, Egypt, Syria, Lebanon, Gaza, and Jordan. This continuous status quo of Israel and their nations constantly getting into skirmishes cannot last much longer. Israel needs to do something about it. And according to Psalm 83 if that does become prophecy fulfilled, then Israel will control those nations. And this is what the Islamic map will look like. Let's go to the next war, Ezekiel 38 & 39, one of the longest discussed prophetic wars in the whole Bible. I love this war, I love reading about it, please read it get in there in Ezekiel 38 & 39 it talks about Russia, Iran, Turkey all those –stans, Libya and other nations an outer ring of Islamic nations coming against Israel. Israel seems undefeatable, it takes all those nations to try to destroy Israel. And what happens? The Bible says that God makes His appearance back on the earth, not physically but He annihilates those armies. These hordes, these uncountable armies that Israel has no chance of standing up against. He uses biblical type things, fire, and brimstone, the armies turn on each other, and they are decimated. This entire Islamic army is utterly destroyed and the world looks like that.

We read during the Tribulation, the seven year time period where God pours out his wrath on the earth, and the Antichrist rules the earth probably because Russia and the Middle East there is a power vacuum now because there is nothing there anymore. And it says the United States, the young lions, we interpret it that way, all sit out the war, so someone has to fill that power vacuum and Europe is there to fill the power vacuum. And we read in the Tribulation that there are four religions during the Tribulation, we know there is Christianity and Judaism because the Antichrist spends all his time persecuting them. We know that there is what is called the harlot she is a conglomeration of world religions that rides on the back of the Antichrist. And half way through the Tribulation he gets rid of all competing and he sets himself up to be worshipped. There is no mention of Islam during the Tribulation. And folks for a religion that is based on having to destroy your enemies for Allah's honor and Allah loses every single war big and bad, I think it is going to gut Islam before the Tribulation begins.

And then we get into the third conventional war, Revelation 6 the Antichrist when he assumes power begins annihilating a quarter of the world population. Now if you can't have a competing religion with you, an ultimate religion, a religion like Islam that says there are no other religions, what do you do with it? You annihilate it. The biggest population of Muslims in the world are in Indonesia, and India and those other places that are outside the Middle East. So more than likely the Antichrist is going to be spending his time annihilating Islam to set himself up as ruler. 1.5 billion people in our time period will die from this war. And the map will look like this. Folks I really don't believe that Islam has much of a future left, because the end time signs are pointing to the soon return of Jesus Christ. We could have a Psalm 83 War at any minute, the destruction of Damascus in Isaiah 17 could occur at any minute. The alliance of nations, the Gog Magog alliance already exists. Europe is so fragile as Brother Al so wonderfully showed last night, that they are ready for a leader to take over. Everything is in place. And the big bad Islam of Satan's regime does not have much time left.

Now I want to admit one thing, I am going to admit it right here, I'm a hater, I'm a card carrying hater of Islam which is a terrible thing now of days. But do you know why I hate Islam? I hate what it does to the people. It enslaves over a billion people to a religion that tells them that they must kill themselves. I hate it that Satan rules it and he gets away with it. I hate because of all the Christians that they murder. Our ministry supports a gentleman by the name of Standfast Oyinna in Nigeria, he just reported this week Muslims in Bokoharem broke in with hatchets and machetes, they were chopping up the people. His son put his hand up to defend his head and they chopped his hand off. This week. One of the people in his church, they took his children and they were going to throw them down a well with other children but they escaped, praise the Lord. This is what Islam does to a nation, it subjugates, and it puts us back into the dark ages. It sends people to Hell by the billions. So yes, I hate Islam, I hate Satan.

But you know as Christians we are called to hate evil and love good, and it's ok to be a hater of Islam because it kills people forever. But folks it also presents the greatest opportunity for evangelism in world history if you know how to evangelize the Muslim. One of the blessings of being Web Minister is that I get to talk to people all over the world. I have people write in through various venues, and social networks you name it, Muslims seeking to understand God, or try to convert me to Islam which just opens the door for me to share with them. And I am going to share with you six different ways that you can reach a Muslim for Christ. (1) A Bible is ok to read, Surah 5:50, 68 says that Mohammad gave an ok, thumbs up, for the Muslim to read the Bible. If you give them the Word of God the Holy Spirit can speak through that. From a real Muslim girl her name is Fars, from Iran: "I left Islam for several reasons. Originally because I was sent by my grandmother to a mullah to learn the Islamic prayer. I was taught this in Arabic, which as a Persian, I didn't understand one word of it. When I asked this mullah what the heck it meant and what I was saying, he said it wasn't important that I know, just that I say it with all my heart. Say what with all my heart? He then complained to my grandmother that I was too questioning for a girl and should be talked to. Whatever. I finally bought an English translation of the Koran, I was appalled. No wonder the Mullah didn't want me to know what it all meant. When I read some of the passages in English to my mother she was shocked with disbelief. "That can't be right?" She couldn't believe it and she had been a Moslem all her life and never knew exactly what the Koran said. She and my sister have both also left Islam. That is the tragic legacy especially in Iran which had Islam forced on it by Arabs. That is why educated college students are up in arms because they are finally beginning to understand what Islam really means and says." And once she could read the Bible in English she gave her life to Christ. It is ok for a Muslim to read the Bible and you can tell them that.

How about witnessing? (2) The Life of Christ this is a testimony of a man of man named Ibn Zakaria, from Morocco, he said, "I left Islam because I didn't find peace with it. Since my childhood, I had a lot of questions in my mind about Human Rights in Islam, women rights, Eternal life and about the life of Mohammed. I started looking for answers, by reading the Bible and comparing the life of Mohammed to that of The Lord Jesus Christ. I found myself far from Islam and enlighten by the Gospel and the truth of the word of God."

When you hold up the life of Mohammed a killer, a murderer, a wife stealer, a child molester, a liar and put it up with Jesus Christ, sinless, loving, holy, died for us. A Muslim is shocked, they can't believe it. The Jesus taught in the Koran isn't that Jesus at all. And of course anyone is attracted to someone who lays down their life for them. Tell them what Jesus did for them.

(3) The love of God. This is Abdel Masih of Egypt this is how he became saved, "I was born in Egypt to a Muslim family. I think in looking back that maybe my family was loving because it was liberal in its approach to Islam. It was loving not because of Islam but in spite of it. When I began to study I saw that the Qoran was very filled with hate and not enough on love. Christianity seemed so much more familiar and the Sermon on the Mount is a teaching after my own heart. There is nothing like it in the Islamic literature." God is love. You know Muslims don't know love whatsoever. Not from god. I mean you see these Mullahs on TV, they are angry they are yelling all the time. It is a religion of hate. A Muslim like any person wants to know love and you can reach them by telling of the love of God.

(4) The assurance of salvation, Mounif, of Morocco writes, "My father was and still is an imam in a mosque. I had many questions about my place in Paradise, but there was no answer." They have no assurance of salvation except for one thing and that is to die a martyr. To kill infidels in your own death that is the only assurance they have of salvation. Why do you think then that people are willing to blow themselves up? That is the only way they can get into Paradise. You can assure them through Jesus Christ that He died once and all for their sins and they have assurance of Heaven with their Father.

(5) Grace- Sinbad, of India said, "I had of course gone through the whole process of learning about Islam and the do's and don'ts, and had always tried to practice it but always was struggling as if I was forever carrying a great load on my back, as if I was in a prison. After I left I felt as if I had just been released from Prison." Folks Islam is shackles on them, they feel it, and they know it. But when you teach them about the grace of God, that there is nothing you can do to be saved that God did it all, Jesus Christ did it on the cross, they feel relieved. Maybe you look back to the time when you got saved, you felt that weight life off of you. A Muslim is looking for that weight to be lifted off of them.

And finally (6) A relationship with God, this is what Cynthia an American said, "My fear of Allah became so intense that I hoped to get cancer and therefore be punished for my sins on earth instead of after death. I would scrub and cleanse my body in prayer so obsessively, that my hands became cracked and bloody. Still, I continued to believe in a religion that on the outside looked so moral and just. Then I did something that I told my parents and myself I would never do. I rented the movie, 'The Passion of The Christ.' I held back tears that threatened to fall from my eyes until the short scene in the movie when Mary Magdalene reverts back to the day when Jesus was the only person who would accept her and love her. I began to cry as I suddenly realized what my mother had been trying to tell me for years. Finally, I understood that God loved me and was not out to get me or do me harm. It was also at that moment that I knew that Allah was not God. I felt the love and protection of God all around me. I was no longer scared to live and no longer scared to die. The world looked so beautiful and I couldn't stop thanking God for saving me. It has only been two weeks since I was saved by Jesus Christ, and they have been the happiest two weeks of my life. Every day that I wake up I am so grateful that God never left my side during my seven year hiatus. I feel like he was just patiently waiting for my return. I now live my life with an inner peace and love for God that I cannot put into words. Thank you Jesus for never leaving me." That is one of the best ways to reach a Muslim for Christ, a relationship with God, not some distant unknowable being that could care less about them and wants their death to prove their faith. But a God who loves them and cares for them. The very Jesus you accepted.

Folks there is a lot to fear with Islam. It is a big problem right now, and our country is facing it. Our government supports it. In fear of it they have not only become supporters but they have become collaborators, they are allowing Islam to take over our nation. Where there is a lack of faith, where there is a lack of morals, there is a decline in population, its God's way of weeding out the stupid I like to think. And God is weeding us out and replacing it with Islam until a point. The Bible gives us hope that Islam will fail. Jesus Christ is coming soon. He will defeat Islam. He will defeat Satan. And I think during the Tribulation when you read about the multitudes that have accepted Jesus Christ as Savior I bet many of them are former Muslims finally released from Islam's hold.

So go out and share the Gospel with Muslims, don't be scared of them, don't be scared they are seeking like so many other people. Free them of that burden.
