Dr. Reagan: Where are we on the end time Bible prophecy timeline? Is the Rapture imminent? Are we on the threshold of the Tribulation? And where does the United States fit into the end time scenario of events? Stay tuned.

Part 1

Dr. Reagan: Greetings in the name of Jesus our Blessed Hope and welcome to Christ in Prophecy. I am delighted to have as my special guest a dear friend and colleague Don McGee from Amite, Louisiana. Welcome to Christ in Prophecy Don.

Don McGee: Good to be here.

Dr. Reagan: It is always good to have you.

Don McGee: It is always good to be here.

Dr. Reagan: And folks I am also pleased to have my associate Nathan Jones here to help me interview Don. Nathan is our Web Minister, welcome Nathan.

Nathan Jones: Thank you, Dave.

Dr. Reagan: Don every time we have you on this program without exception we are covered up with letters and e-mails and telephone calls saying, “How in the world does that guy keep those glasses on the end of his nose? Is the secret supper glue, or is it Velcro?”

Don McGee: I don’t know Dave; some guy out of Germany is providing me with a something to put on my nose.

Dr. Reagan: Don McGee is the Founder and Director of a Bible prophecy ministry called, Crown and Sickle. Don where is that unusual name come from?

Don McGee: The name comes from a passage of Scripture from Revelation 14:14 where Jesus is seen sitting on a cloud and He is wearing a golden crown and He has a sharp sickle in His hand. And He is about to reap the earth and that is where we have the separation of the wheat and the tares so to speak.

Dr. Reagan: And actually that is an event that may come soon.

Don McGee: I hope it does.

Dr. Reagan: We are going to be talking about that in a moment. Nathan why don't you ask the first question in our interview here?

Nathan Jones: Okay Don again it is great to have you here man.

Don McGee: Thank you, thank you.

Nathan Jones: Where do you think we are on the prophetic end time, timeline?

Don McGee: I believe that we are at the point where the return of Jesus for the Church, commonly called the Rapture is imminent. I don't think that we can any longer say, "Well it is going to come soon." Although I understand what people mean when they say that. I believe that imminent is a better word because it could happen at any moment.

Dr. Reagan: What does the word imminent mean?

Don McGee: It means it could happen right now. There is no delay; there is no prophecy that must be fulfilled, no event that must happen. It could happen before sundown today easily.

Dr. Reagan: So the signs of the times do not necessary point to the Rapture, but they point to end time events like the Tribulation, the Second Coming.

Don McGee: There are two kinds of signs that you could look for in the Scriptures. You can go to Matthew 24 and read about events that Jesus said would happen during the Tribulation Period. We are living in the shadow of those events right now, today. All you have to do is look around and see what is happening in the world. And then secondly you can go to 2 Timothy 3 and Paul describes to Timothy how people will be living in the last days. I believe Paul was talking about the last days of the Church Age. But Jesus was talking to the Jews about events that would happen during the Tribulation Period. And Dave you know I believe this is a synergistic thing. When you take what Paul said about the events that would occur at the end of the Church Age, and put those or combine them with the events that Jesus said would happen in the Tribulation then you have just an increase in intensity and in volume of a world that has gone haywire, that requires the return of Jesus.

Dr. Reagan: Well certainly as you begin to look at the prophecies concerning the Tribulation and the Second Coming of Jesus and the signs that indicate that and we look around and see those signs all over the place today. You know for certain that the Rapture has to be right around the corner.

Don McGee: Yes, absolutely right around the corner.

Dr. Reagan: More so then ever before, right?

Nathan Jones: And one of the things that we as Christians understand about the imminent Rapture is what John said this should purify our lives. If we really believe that Jesus could come back at any moment for the Church, then that should be reflected in several things. It should be reflected in our zeal for evangelism and it should be reflected in holy living.

Dr. Reagan: Well you know Don, I grew up in the same church you did so you know my background and heritage well. And attended that for almost 30 years and I never once, never once in that 30 years ever heard the word Rapture. In fact in the end of 30 years of going to church if you had asked me what the Rapture was I would have said it was a sensation you feel when you kiss your girlfriend. What is the Rapture? Because I am sure there are people who are watching who don't even know what that word means. What is the Rapture? What are you talking about?

Don McGee: I was very fortunate that the group that I was raised with talked about it all the time. What the Rapture means; is that Jesus is going to come back in the air and there will be a trumpet, and there will be a voice of the Archangel and death will release its hold upon Christians. There will be the Resurrection when Christians, this is a family affair, this is not a general resurrection. Christians shall be raised up and reunited or united with their immortal glorified bodies to meet the Lord in the air and then we are going back to Heaven for a period of 7 years. That is the Rapture.

Dr. Reagan: What about those alive.

Don McGee: Those will be caught up also and those who are dead will be caught up first then those who are alive will be caught up. And it is all going to happen in a period of time that is so hard to imagine.

Dr. Reagan: So you are saying this and the Rapture then is an event that is separate and apart from what we usually refer to as the Second Coming.

Don McGee: Totally separate and apart, they are not associated what so ever.

Dr. Reagan: So you are saying the Return of Jesus is going to be in 2 stages.

Don McGee: That's how a lot of people would put it, that's right.

Nathan Jones: So the Rapture before the Tribulation....

Don McGee: Rapture before the Tribulation.

Nathan Jones: ... and then Jesus' victorious return after.

Don McGee: We have the Rapture could happen right now.

Nathan Jones: Okay.

Don McGee: And then when that happens there will be a 7 year period of time in which Jesus or God is going to deal with the Jewish people to bring them back. At the end of that 7 year period we have the Second Coming.

Dr. Reagan: So you are saying then that there are no events that have to occur before the Rapture.

Don McGee: That's right.

Dr. Reagan: But there are events that have to occur before the Second Coming.

Don McGee: That's right.

Dr. Reagan: Like what?

Don McGee: Well after the Church is taken out a man is going to arrive upon the scene, this guy is going to be a world ruler, commonly called the Antichrist, in fact that is what God calls him in His Word. This man is going to have the answer to the world's problems and all you have to do again is look around you and see we have plenty of them. And if any man comes upon the scene and says, "I can fix that. I can give you peace and security and prosperity." The whole world will go for it. That's going to happen.

Dr. Reagan: Okay.

Don McGee: This man is going to sign a document with Israel also protecting him.

Dr. Reagan: What about the rebuilding of the temple in Jerusalem?

Don McGee: The temple is going to be rebuilt because at the 3 ½ year period, time period in the Tribulation this Antichrist is going to go into that temple and declare himself to be God.

Nathan Jones: What about...

Dr. Reagan: The moment that we start talking about the Return of Jesus I can imagine people clicking off because they are saying, "Oh, here is one of those crazy guys that sets dates and he is going to tell us the date Jesus is going to return.” When we talk about the season of the Lord’s Return we are not talking about a date are we?

Don McGee: No, no, we have been accused of date setting and there is a man right now that’s predicting that the Return of Jesus is within a few days, he has been very specific on the date of the return.

Dr. Reagan: Well we have that all the time.

Don McGee: That’s been happening for a long, long time.

Dr. Reagan: And the press always focuses on that.

Don McGee: They focus on that, and people use that...

Dr. Reagan: So they can make fun of it.

Don McGee: ...people us that to say, “Uh-huh look at those Pre-mill, Pre-Trib people out there, they are a bunch of crazies. The season of the Lord’s Return, we are living in it right now. I can’t tell you what will be the hottest day of the year. I can’t tell you what date. But I can tell you it is going to be in the somer time. So I can’t tell you what day Jesus is coming back, but I can tell you that we are living in the season of it.

Dr. Reagan: Well the Lord wants us to know the season of His return.

Don McGee: Certainly He does.

Dr. Reagan: He does not wish that any should perish. He always, He always warns before He pours out His wrath, and there is going to be great wrath poured out by God after that Rapture time, during the Tribulation. And God does not want any to perish, so certainly He is going to give us signs to watch for.

Don McGee: That is absolutely correct. One of the greatest signs of the 20th Century was the re-establishment of Israel.

Nathan Jones: Yes.

Don McGee: That is the pivot point that’s where you go to begin looking at signs. But there are other things too, there are signs of nature, and there are signs of technology. If you look at the world you see that we are a world wide citizenry now, people don’t even want to talk about borders, that is an indication that the whole world is coming together in a situation where this Antichrist can say, [clears throat], pardon me, can say, “I’ve got the answer to solutions not just in your geographical area, but for the whole world.”

Dr. Reagan: Nathan you are on the internet everyday talking to people all over the world. Do you sense that people feel like we are living in the season of the Lord's Return?

Nathan Jones: There has been a great awakening especially amongst the people on the internet that I talk to because of the natural disasters. I mean we have we have been having a great increase in natural disasters. Before when people were not paying attention, now they are paying attention.

Dr. Reagan: It is amazing how natural disasters can get people's attention.

Nathan Jones: Very much so.

Dr. Reagan: When I was a kid living in Waco, Texas in 1953 they had the worse tornado in the entire history of the state even to this day, and over 100 people killed, the town completely devastated. We had standing room only at all the churches, it didn't matter Episcopal, Presbyterian, standing room only for about 6 months, and then people started forgetting and drifting away and all. But there is something about God speaking through nature which He has done all through history that gets people's attention.

Don McGee: I think one of the reasons that what is happening in nature gets our attention is because what happens in Japan affects what happening in America, we see nature calamities.

Dr. Reagan: Yes.

Nathan Jones: We are all tied together.

Don McGee: Look at the impact it's not just a weather situation or a seismic situation but it affects the economy, it effects the provision the supply of food, clean water, and the radioactive clouds that's move across the earth, all kinds of things.

Dr. Reagan: And we realize there are forces that we have no control over.

Don McGee: That's right, that's right.

Dr. Reagan: We just don't have any control.

Don McGee: Look what the volcano is Iceland did, it shut down Europe.

Dr. Reagan: Oh, yeah.

Nathan Jones: All of Europe, yeah, one volcano.

Don McGee: Yeah, and when you look at the rim of fire....

Dr. Reagan: And these things they are definitely increasing in frequency and intensity.

Don McGee: Yes they are.

Nathan Jones: To make sure people in Waco don't fall asleep again, or like we did after 9/11, God is constantly reminding us.

Part 2

Nathan Jones: Welcome back to Christ in Prophecy and our interview of Don McGee, Evangelist for Crown and Sickle Ministries. Hey Don I would like to know what you did before you became a Bible prophecy pastor and what made you want to get into Bible prophecy full-time?

Don McGee: I guess the best way to put that is that I call it a various background; other people call it a sorted background.

Nathan Jones: Sorted, uh-oh.

Don McGee: As an adult I...

Dr. Reagan: Did you say sorted, or assorted?

Don McGee: Sorted. I was as an adult I was a soldier, and I was a soldier for several years.

Dr. Reagan: In the Vietnam War weren't you?

Don McGee: In the Vietnam War and remained in the Reserves for a little while after that. After that I became a Louisiana State Trooper something that I wanted to do for a very long time and enjoyed that.

Dr. Reagan: And actually became a guard to the Governor didn't you?

Don McGee: I worked as mansion security, yeah.

Nathan Jones: Wow, okay.

Don McGee: Yeah, kept the bad guys out.

Nathan Jones: You're a dangerous man. Believe in Bible prophecy.

Don McGee: That was interesting, that was very interesting. And then I went into the ministry.

Nathan Jones: Okay.

Don McGee: I became a pulpit, what I call a pulpit preacher, I like that term because it identifies me as doing what I like to do which is preach and teach. The pastoral end is another story, and that's why...

Dr. Reagan: I can't imagine you holding the hands...

Don McGee: No I don't do a lot of that.

Dr. Reagan: ... and listening to the same story 15 times.

Don McGee: No, I was not really good at the pastoral end of things, and of course that didn't work. So anyway I, in a manner of speaking I got a pink slip.

Nathan Jones: Uh-oh.

Don McGee: And really didn't know or understand what the Lord wanted me to do after taking counsel from some very wise men, close friends, Dave being 1 of them; I started Crown and Sickle Ministries.

Dr. Reagan: What year?

Don McGee: That was in 2002, November of 2002 we incorporated as a 501(c)(3)

Dr. Reagan: Oh man, that's great.

Nathan Jones: Wow, praise the Lord.

Dr. Reagan: Stepped out in faith.

Don McGee: Stepped out in faith.

Dr. Reagan: It's kind of scary isn't it?

Don McGee: It was, but it prompted growth and not just in me but in my family and people who are close to me were watching this.

Dr. Reagan: Well there is no doubt God's hand was on you because He has really, really blessed your ministry since that time.

Don McGee: Yeah, it has been wonderful.

Dr. Reagan: Why you don't tell our folks how they can get in touch with you.

Don McGee: Go to the internet and go to crownandsickle.com or you can call us by telephone at (985)748-2943, but the best way is through the internet. And we have resources on our website, it is dynamic it changes almost weekly, and we would love for you to visit. If you would like to have our free monthly newsletter give us a contact message with that in the subject line and we would be happy to put you on our mailing list.

Dr. Reagan: And if they want to contact you about holding a meeting at their church, same place?

Don McGee: They can do that through the website with no problem whatsoever.

Nathan Jones: Excellent.

Dr. Reagan: Well Nathan let's get back into Bible prophecy.

Nathan Jones: Alright, let's get back. Thank you for sharing that with us Don. Alright let me give you a verse, Matthew 24:14, "And this Gospel of the Kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come."

Don McGee: Oh, Nathan...

Nathan Jones: How do you interpret that verse?

Don McGee: ...that has been taken out of context so many times.

Dr. Reagan: Well doesn't that mean that the Gospel has to be preached to everybody in the world before Jesus can come?

Don McGee: At the Second Coming, but it does not mean that the Gospel has to be preached to the whole world before the Rapture of the Church.

Nathan Jones: That's huge, that's huge.

Don McGee: And its going to happen there is there are the 2 witnesses, 144,000 Jewish Evangelist and then there is this angel...

Dr. Reagan: You are talking about during the Tribulation?

Don McGee: ...during the Tribulation that preaches the Gospel to the whole world.

Dr. Reagan: And then actually it's culminated isn't it in Revelation 14 where the Gospel angel circumnavigates the globe.

Don McGee: That's right.

Dr. Reagan: And actually preaches the Gospel to every person before the final pouring out of God's wrath.

Don McGee: If you want a precedent for that look at what happened in Egypt when the death angel moved across the land destroying the first born of the families. This is going to be totally different of course because it is going to be the preaching of the Gospel. But God can do that; He can move His messengers as He wills.

Nathan Jones: So we don't have to reach every little tribal group in some Brazilian mountain or something with the Gospel?

Don McGee: No, no.

Nathan Jones: That is totally something after the Rapture?

Don McGee: Right, so the Rapture could happen at anytime. It has nothing to do with the Gospel going to the whole world.

Dr. Reagan: Okay now with regard to that- during the Tribulation what about, we mentioned how people are going to learn about the Lord Jesus Christ; you mentioned the 144,000 witnesses these are Jewish people who accept Jesus and it appears that they go forth and proclaim the Gospel. You mentioned the 2 witnesses in Jerusalem who will be there 3 ½ years. You mentioned the Gospel Angel, I can think of a couple of other things that would bring people to the Lord in fact there are 3 others that come to mind right now; 1 would be the Rapture itself might convince some people although there is going to be a lot of deception about the Rapture.

Nathan Jones: Oh, yeah aliens.

Dr. Reagan: Another one would be- there are going to be Bibles everywhere.

Don McGee: That's right.

Dr. Reagan: In fact in the front of my Bible I have written down what you must do to be saved and I have given them because they are not going to have a lot of time. So there will be Bibles around. And then the very pouring out of God's wrath, you know our God is an amazing God even when He pours out His wrath His fundamental purpose is not to punish, His fundamental purpose is to bring people to repentance that they might be saved. It says in Isaiah when God plows the earth He does so for the purpose of bringing people to salvation.

Don McGee: That's right, God is not a tyrant, He is not some deity up there that wants to smash people. His grace and His mercy spring from His love, and He loved the whole world. And the whole purpose behind this thing is to work with the Jewish people to help the Jewish people to salvation.

Dr. Reagan: I am glad that you mentioned that because there is a fellow on MSNBC which is notorious for being Liberal. I was trying to think of his name I think his name is Lawrence O'Donnell and he has a nightly program and last week he said on that program, "Anyone who believes the book of Revelation is nuts it is a work of fiction, it reveals a horrible God who is worse than Hitler." What do you have to say about that?

Don McGee: I would say, He is not the God that I know and secondly he doesn't know anything about the Book of Revelation. I think he is probably parroting something that some heretic said years ago and they are saying today. I think that a person can read the book of Revelation from a prayerful, with a prayerful attitude and understand exactly what the Lord wants us to see here. Who was it Dave that said, "That Revelation is not hard to understand, it is hard to believe."

Dr. Reagan: Henry Morris.

Nathan Jones: Henry Morris.

Don McGee: Henry Morris, Dr. Morris.

Dr. Reagan: It is just hard to believe.

Don McGee: Yes, yes.

Dr. Reagan: But the purpose of God's wrath is to deal with rebellion, with hardcore sin. He has given people plenty of time to repent and there comes a time when by His very justice He must deal with this.

Don McGee: Well the antecedent for that, the precedent for that is in the book of Judges in the cycle of sin, you remember. You read about that you will see that every time the people came under persecution from the Philistines then they would repent and they would come back to God that's the whole idea behind this thing.

Part 3

Dr. Reagan: Welcome back to Christ in Prophecy and our interview with prophecy expert Don McGee. Don in 2003 judge Robert Bork a man who was once nominated to be on the Supreme Court and it is a tragedy he didn't make it because he was just personally crucified. But Judge Robert Bork wrote a powerful analysis of American society 2003 called, "Slouching Towards Gomorrah," in which he indicated that our nation like the Old Roman Empire was being destroyed by internal moral rot. Would you agree, and what would be your assessment of the spiritual condition of America today?

Don McGee: I think Judge Bork hit it just dead on. I think that if the book were written today it wouldn't be slouching toward Gomorrah; I think it would be a headlong fall into the morass of evil. And I believe that things have gotten worse since he wrote that book.

We see that there are so many things that are contrary to God's nature and what He said about humanity that are being put out there for acceptance by the public. We are not longer a God fearing nation. I think about something that Lincoln did, President Lincoln did in the dark days of the Civil War, he called for a National Day of Prayer and Repentance.

Nathan Jones: And Repentance, yeah.

Don McGee: And you know he said a lot of things, and you can pull it up on the Internet and look at it and see what he said. One of the things that he said is that, "We have allowed our prosperity and our independence to propel us into a position where we think we've got everything." A tiger by the tail on a downhill drag, you know we don't need to worry about God anymore. And that is not true.

Dr. Reagan: You know that was a remarkable statement of his because what he said basically was, "The whole Civil War is due to our rebellion against God. We need to go to our churches our synagogues, spend a whole day repenting, praying." And you know Don I think if a President were to issue such a declaration like that today there would probably be an immediate move to impeach him. That is how far we've moved away.

Don McGee: I've given some thought to that also, and in a presidential election I believe that if a candidate would stand up and say, "This is what I will do once I am inaugurated." I think that that person will feel heat like no President has ever felt. I believe that he is going to see heat from different directions too, he is going to see it from the Hollywood elite, he is going to see it from Wall Street, he is going to see it from Madison Avenue, he is going to see it from the Halls of Congress. But more importantly he is going to see it from a lot of so-called Christianity.

Nathan Jones: Yes.

Dr. Reagan: What are some of the indicators of moral rot in America today?

Don McGee: The perversion of homosexuality accepted as a normal lifestyle, as something that is normal, you are born it is genetic and you can't do anything about it.

Dr. Reagan: Did you think you would ever live to see churches endorsing same-sex marriage?

Don McGee: When I was a young man I thought that would never happen. But not only are they endorsing same-sex marriages but many of their leaders who are practicing homosexuals and lesbians are being ordained as bishops and priests and preachers.

Dr. Reagan: In direct opposition to God's Word.

Don McGee: They pick a pig-path through the Scripture. They take scissors and they cut out what doesn't agree with them.

Dr. Reagan: I've never heard that one, a pig-path.

Nathan Jones: As if Jesus isn't God and didn't have anything to say about it?

Don McGee: Yeah, how can you argue with the plain Word of God? And in fact these people don't even argue with it anymore, their hearts are so calloused they just flat out reject it.

Dr. Reagan: What about the murdering of babies?

Don McGee: No country, no country can escape the wrath of God when they kill millions of little babies before they are born every year. And that is sin like other things are sin, but to harm the innocent is, from what I see in the Old Testament and in the New Testament when Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me," indicates to me that there is a special place in the great heart of God for the innocent.

Dr. Reagan: What about national debt? I consider that to be an immorality.

Don McGee: Stewardship is something that is taught throughout the Bible. And anytime you spend more than you take in, at least in my house debt arises.

Dr. Reagan: You know I was thinking about this the other day and I thought what we are doing right now would be equivalent to me going out and buying a 50 million dollar mansion and signing an agreement to pay for it over the next 200 years, putting that debt on my children, my grandchildren, and my great-grandchildren. That would not be a moral action.

Don McGee: Not at all, not at all.

Nathan Jones: 10 years ago Japan had an inheritance tax where they could actually sign something and then pass it onto your grandchildren to pay for it. And we all got up in arms about it, but now 10 years later we are doing the exact same thing; we just don't point it out.

Don McGee: You can't do that at your house because you can't print money. But if you are the government you print money and it incurs debt.

Dr. Reagan: Well you know there are just so many signs of the moral rot of America today. One of them is certainly is vocabulary, I remember that in 1939 the first movie ever to have a curse word in it was, "Gone with the Wind." It was held up by the censors for several months because it had 1 curse word in it, right at the end, the word damn. Today you go the average movie put out by Hollywood and the language is just absolutely overwhelming in terms of every horrible word you could possibly think of. But we become desensitized to this stuff.

Don McGee: Absolutely, and I think I use that term absolutely too much, but I just concur wholeheartedly with what you said. Recently I was in a restaurant, a family restaurant and there was a family of 4; mom, dad, 2 kids and the language that was coming out of that man's mouth in front of his little children was atrocious. And felt no problem about using that.

Nathan Jones: Just go to the playgrounds. I mean my kids they play with other kids who swear like sailors, and they are so young and you know they are getting it from their parents.

Don McGee: When I was a teenager, I didn't think girls burped, that was something they just didn't do.

Nathan Jones: How long ago was that Don?

Don McGee: That was a long time ago, but I certainly knew that girls did not use that kind of language.

Dr. Reagan: Oh, yeah.

Don McGee: And today it is- their mouths are as filthy as any sailors that I have ever heard. So the weaker sex as it used to be called is no longer immune from that kind of degradation and foul language.

Dr. Reagan: Well you could see a lot of it in the greed. Greed seems to be the motivating force in America today. No matter how much I've got to have more. This is certainly an indication of the moral rot of the nation. There are so many of these things, it is kind of like the Old Roman Empire all over again in terms of its internal moral rot.

Don McGee: Another aspect of that is gambling too.

Dr. Reagan: Oh, yes.

Don McGee: When you talk about gambling you talk about a God, what you are doing is practical atheism, you are believing that you are in control of your life and that you are going to insure...

Dr. Reagan: And you believe that what God has given you is not sufficient and I've got to go out and get it some other way.

Don McGee: And for 1 person to win a 1,000 people have to lose.

Dr. Reagan: But Don one of the problems we've got here is that Christians, professing Christians are involved in all this stuff. If professing Christians would stop getting abortions the abortion mills would have to close, if professing Christians would stop buying lottery tickets they wouldn't have them, because 85% of the people in America profess to be Christians. I mean we are part of the problem.

Don McGee: Yes, and I think that one of the reasons for that is because people really don't understand what Christian means anymore.

Nathan Jones: Yeah.

Dr. Reagan: It is cultural Christian.

Don McGee: It is a cultural thing.

Dr. Reagan: Yeah, so I am raised in a Christian home and I've gone to Church and maybe I go once a year, so I am a Christian.

Don McGee: Yeah, my Dad was a preacher, or a deacon and my mom was a Sunday School teacher. So I am automatically am a Christian.

Nathan Jones: You know what is sad about all the immorality, this not having the foundation of the Bible anymore, what I've seen a lot especially in the 90's and you see it in the Morrissett songs and all is that after all this pleasure does not fulfill, that apathy has set in. And people have filled their lives so much that they seem so hopeless now.

Dr. Reagan: That is a good point Nathan because our children today, most of them don't even know basic Bible stories, like Adam and Eve, and Moses. They don't even know those things, they are just biblically illiterate and they have no moral basis upon which to make decisions. Except on the basis of what they see on television you solve all problems with violence. Well Don our time is up. I want to thank you once again for being with us you are a great blessing to us. And I want to invite you to be back next week. Would you come back next week?

Don McGee: Thank you, I would love to.

Dr. Reagan: Okay, well we are going to have you back next week and we are going to give you an opportunity to really speak your heart to our viewers next week. Well folks, that's our program for this week I hope it has been a blessing to you, and I hope you will be back with us again next week. Until then this Dave Reagan speaking for Lamb and Lion Ministries' saying, "Look up, be watchful for our redemption is drawing near."

End of Program
